Single Malt Scotch Whisky:

Highland Region

The Balvenie Single Barrel 15 year old Speyside District, honey, sweet, hint of heather and dry oaky notes in the nose. The palate is rich and complex from years of careful aging, it has honey maltiness with vanilla oak flavor and spicy peat notes. The finish is long with a touch of licorice.
The Balvenie Port Wood 21 year old Speyside District, to the nose it has perfume of fruity and ripe raisin notes backed by a nutty dryness. To the palate a malt of refining and remarkable character, it is creamy and silky with fruit, honey and spice notes and has a long and gentle nutty finish.

Glenfiddich 12 year old Speyside (Dufftown) District, juicy, lively, deliciously spiced, crisp malt, mildly smoky.

Glenlivet 12 year old, Speyside (Livet) District, pale gold in color. Flowery apple, soft, clean nose with a light to medium body. Flowery apple palate with hint of vanilla and long, warm, gentle finish.

Glenmorangie 10 year old Northern District, pale gold in color. Spicy cinnamon, walnut nose with a hint of the sea, a light to medium body. A spicy flowery with a flaky oakiness, a very complex palate with a hint of smoke. This remains one of the great single malts.

Macallan 12 year old Speyside District, amber in color. Light flowery, honey, and sherry nose. Full smooth body. Initially showing hints of flowering currant on the palate then the flavor opens up more with a rounded finish.

Oban 14 year old Western Highland District, amber in color. Intense nose with highlight on the peaty smokiness. Rich smooth body, slightly viscous. Dry smoky palate with hints of fruit and malt with a smooth aromatic finish.

Talisker 10 year old Skye District, bright amber-red in color. Rich smoky nose with a hint of toffee. Full body, slightly viscous. A big peat explosion on the palate that is muffled by caramel with a very peppery, long finish.

Islay Region

Laphroaig 15 year old South Shore District, pale amber in color. Dry deep nose. Medium to full body with a soothing oiliness. A sneaky moment sherry sweetness then intense flavors of the Islay region with a long warm round dry finish.

Islay Region

Bruichladdich 14 year old Loch Indaal District, old gold in color. The nose has a hint of grass malt and the sea. Body light to med, slightly oily, smooth. Palate more assertive, a complex display of elements: saltiness, grassy maltiness and flowery peatiness. Finish is long and crisp, grassy, malty, with hint of sweetness.

Lowland Region

Glenkinchie 10 year old East District, gold color. Soft sweet grassy nose with hint of smoke finishing. Light to medium body. Clean, smooth, sweet, grassy palate with lots of flavors and finishes with a spicy cinnamon, ginger, and dry, warming end.
